NEW HUNGARIAN ORGANIZATION FOR STATE SUPERVISION OF COMMERCE

The Hungarian Council of Ministers has created a new supervisory organization, the Allami Kereskedelmi Felugyelet (State Supervision of Commerce).

Functioning under the immediate authority of the Ministry of Domestic Commerce, the new organ will begin its activities on 1 December 1952. It is to have control over all state, cooperative, and private commerce, the restaurant and public catering enterprises, artisans cooperatives, and all plant cafeterias.

The specific functions of the Allami Kereskedelmi Felugyelet include control over the enforcement of domestic trade regulations, the strengthening of state discipline in commerce, the improvement of commercial work, and the protection of communal property, all in the interests of better service to the consumer.
